Theatrical Notes.

Clay Clement, who with his wife is appearing at Hopkins' this week presenting his clever little play, "The Baron's Love Story," is contemplating retiring from the stage at the close of the season and devoting all his time to literary work, in which he has already achieved sufficient success to tempt him to continue, says the Louisville Courier-Journal.

"I happen to be in vaudeville," he explained, "because when I returned last summer from a trip around the world it was too late to book a tour for this season, and I accepted a proposition to enter vaudeville rather than be idle. My present sketch is constructed from 'The New Dominion,' which I have several times presented in Louisville. I wrote the sketch with a pair of scissors, simply taking the old play and cutting out a few pages—about thirty minutes of legitimate comedy. They seem to like it, but if they do not I simply take the shears again and cut out a few more pages. It is easy, so easy, in fact, that it seems a shame to take the managers' money, but I guess a man is entitled to all he can get from theatrical managers, as they are not accustomed to giving their money away.

"If I do not retire next season," continued the actor, "I will probably go out under the management of Kirke La Shelle in a dramatization that I have made of 'The Virginian,' Owen Wister's clever story."

Persons attending the concert to be given at The Kentucky theater Friday night can be prepared to hear something new in the way of a small band. None in Mr. Deal's band has been eliminated and because of judicious instrumentation and special arrangements of music tone colorings and a balance of parts are obtained that are hardly possible in a string orchestra of the same number of pieces.

The Kentucky orchestra is preparing some dainty numbers to render at the concert to be given at The Kentucky theater Friday night, and admirers of the music of this organization can feel assured of being amply repaid for an attendance upon this occasion.

MARRIAGE THIS MORNING—Mr. J. P. McCarty, the I. O. blacksmith, and Miss Etie Gresham of Princeton were this morning married at the residence of the groom, 760 South Thirteenth street by Rev. Robinson of the Second Baptist church and left at noon for the bride's home in Princeton on a short visit. They will return and reside here.

Mrs. Hal Walters is visiting in Charleston, Mo.

MEAL TIME DRINKS.

SHOULD BE SELECTED TO SUIT THE HEALTH AS WELL AS THE TASTE.

When the coffee toper, ill from coffee drinking, finally leaves off coffee the battle is only half won. Most people require some hot drink at meal time and they also need the rebuilding agent to build up what coffee has destroyed. Postum is the rebuilding, the other half of the battle.

Some people stop coffee and drink hot water, but find this a thin, unpalatable diet, with no rebuilding properties. It is much easier to break away from coffee by serving strong, hot, well boiled Postum in its place. A prominent wholesale grocer of Fairbank, Minn., says: "For a long time I was nervous and could not digest my food. I went to a doctor, who prescribed a tonic and told me to leave off coffee and drink hot water.

"I did so for a time and got some relief, but did not get entirely well, so I lost patience and said, 'Oh well, coffee isn't the cause of my troubles,' and went back to drinking it. I became worse than ever. Then Postum was prescribed. It was not made right at first and for two mornings I could hardly drink it.

"Then I had it boiled full fifteen minutes and used good cream and I had a most charming beverage.

"I fairly got fat on the food drink and my friends asked me what had happened I was 'so well. I was set right and cured when Postum was made right.

"I know other men here who use Postum, among others the cashier of the Security bank and a well known clergyman.

"My firm sells a lot of Postum and I am certainly at your service, for Postum cured me of stomach trouble." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

FIGURE YOUR RENT!

For one year; multiply by ten; the result will be the amount you are paying some one ten per cent upon. Two-thirds of this sum would provide a home of your own. The monthly payments would then be into your pocket. Figure the difference between paying for property and paying for the use of it.

I can sell you property at prices you can afford to pay and on terms to suit you.

Others own their own homes, why shouldn't you?

MR. C. C. GARY DEAD

Well Known Citizen Dies After a Month's Illness.

Was Formerly in the Express and River Service Here.

Mr. C. C. Gary, for a number of years a resident of Paducah, and well known especially in river circles, died this morning at his home on South Seventh street between Tennessee and Jones street from typhoid fever, after a month's illness.

Mr. Gary was at the time he became ill wharfmaster at the N. O. and St. L. wharfboat but had previously been employed on several steamboats running out of Paducah and was for some time employed in the Southern Express company service.

He came here originally from Indianapolis and about nine years ago married Miss Florence Nunemacher, a daughter of the late Mr. A. Nunemacher. He was a member of the Mangum lodge of Odd Fellows and the funeral will be held under the auspices of that lodge tomorrow afternoon from the residence at 2:30 o'clock. The members of the lodge will meet at the hall at 2 o'clock and march to the residence. Interment will be at Oak Grove.

The deceased was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife to mourn his loss.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, since our last meeting death has claimed one of our most earnest members, Jane Dabney Rivers, who entered into rest Saturday, the eighteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and three. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That we, the members of Paducah Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, deplore the loss of one of our most cherished members, in all the beauty of a perfect young womanhood, that had budded and blossomed in our midst. Therefore,

Resolved, That we let her work with us, serve to stimulate us to be faithful to our obligations, even as we have known her to be faithful to hers. We sincerely mourn her loss, which is not alone ours, but one sustained by her family and a large circle of friends. Therefore,

Resolved, That we assure the family of our sorrow at their bereavement, and our loss. To these loved ones, we extend our deepest sympathy. Therefore,

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in all the papers; a copy of same be sent the family, and be spread on the minutes of this Chapter.

MRS. ROY M'KINNY,
MRS. JOHN P. CAMPBELL,
MISS ELIZABETH SINNOTT,
MISS HENRIETTA KOGER,
Committee.

Crown Prince Not to Marry.

London Truth says there is not a particle of foundation for the report that the German Crown Prince will shortly be betrothed to Princess Alice of Albany, and adds that the Crown Prince is not yet 20, and there is not likely to be any serious idea of his marriage for several years to come, as the succession to the Prussian throne is now well provided for.

A GREAT THING

The Carnival Attractions Will Make Everybody Glad.

Thousands Will Feel Glad They Are Alive.

The greatest panacea on earth for the blues, melancholia or the other kindred troubles of life is the great Ferrari Bros.' Mighty Midway Carnival, which is to be here as the amusement feature of the coming carnival in this city. It is the cure-all for dull hours and the greatest business maker on earth today. The man who feels in the dumps wants a whirl on the midway to convince him that life is worth living after all. When he has had it he is practically a new man. There is so much to see and enjoy with the great aggregation that sorrow takes to the tall timber and gloom "goes away back and sits down," out of an occupation. Among the many features of the colossal aggregation of shows are the magnificent trained wild animal shows which was the feature of the Pan-American and Charleston expositions, the great "Cave of the Winds," the wonderful Cingalese, the first of their native race to leave their native Ceylon; the beautiful Orient, with its camels, elephants, donkeys and people of the Far East; the German village, brimful of fun and frolic; the $50,000 golden chariots; the mammoth Ferris Wheel; the world-famous dog and monkey circus; Wild Minnie, from far-away Australia, the first of this kind ever placed upon exhibition and the last of an extinguished race; Esau, the wonderful man-ape, the most startling exponent of the Darwinian theory ever seen by mortal man; the finest selection of free acts ever seen with an aggregation of this character, including Speedy, the champion high diver of the world. He is rightfully named, death-defying, daredevil Speedy. The wonderful Ricardo Bros., so long and favorably known with the Barnum and Bailey circus, the greatest show on earth; Coopers' Cycle Sensation, and Van Norman's Spiral Ascension. There are hosts of other attractions too numerous to mention. If you want to be happy and contented and have one week of fun, mirth and merriment, commencing May 11 and ending May 16, come to the Paducah Free Carnival.
